

This is the station I listen to the majority of time. If there is a LPFM station that takes priority over currnt FM services, I will be left without an alternative. K-Love provides a safe environment for my children to listen to the radio without the inuendos and crass discussions. I believe this is important for all the community.